CALL ON TEWFIK.

France to Demand Her Rights.

M. Bapst Instructed to Present a Note.

Admiral Caillaud Should Reach Destination Today.

Other Vessels Are Expected to Join His Squadron—The Italian Fleet.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PARIS, Nov. 3.—(By Atlantic Cable.) This morning, M. Delcasse, Minister of Foreign Affairs, telegraphed to M. Bapst, councillor of the French embassy at Constantinople, directing him—so the correspondent of the Associated Press is authoritatively informed—to present today to Tewfik Pasha, Ottoman Minister of Foreign Affairs, a note asking how the Turkish government proposes to pay the Lorrain claim, and demanding the execution of the Sultan's irade dealing with that matter. The note will also require satisfaction regarding the rights of France, which are defined in the various capitulations and treaties, and which in some cases have not been respected and in others have been encroached upon by Turkey.

This declaration of what has been done bears out the statement cabled yesterday to the Associated Press about the intentions of the French government. Admiral Caillaud is expected to reach his destination tomorrow. The Foreign Office has received no news from him since his division left the other divisions of the Mediterranean squadron en route for Turkish waters, four days ago.

It is pointed out that the absence of news is not surprising, as the instructions to Admiral Caillaud were to steer due south and to avoid passing in sight of Bonifacio, Corfu, or traversing the Straits of Messina, in order to prevent his movements being signalled. The vessels of the division carried only a normal supply of coal, but this would be much more than enough to enable them to steam 1500 miles, the estimated distance they must cover before reaching their destination.

It is expected that Admiral Caillaud will be joined en route by the torpedo cruiser Condor, which is stationed in Cretan waters, and may be met by the torpedo dispatch boat Vanour, which is stationed at Constantinople. It is also probable that the Russian cruiser Admiral Charner, which arrived at Port Said October 31, from the Far East, is being held there in order to join Admiral Caillaud, if needed. It is also said that three other warships are held in readiness in Toulon to reinforce him should their presence be necessary.

Dispatches from Rome assert that the second division of the Italian Mediterranean squadron, which, as announced yesterday, left for Turkish waters with the supposed object of counter-balancing the French naval demonstration, will join the first division, which has been cruising in the Eastern Mediterranean for some time. It appears that the Greek warships Hydra, Spetsa and Eurais are now at Smyrna, where is also the Russian Mediterranean squadron. It is believed that the British squadron, now at Piræus, will be ordered to proceed to Beyrout.

WINNING NUMBERS.

Arithmetic as the Parties Use It.

Both Claim New York and New Jersey.

Gotham Pastors Taking Part in the Campaign.

Unusual Interest at Philadelphia—Big Figures from Iowa—Weather.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The gubernatorial campaign in New Jersey was brought to a close last night with the leaders of both parties claiming victory for their respective candidates. It was one of the most stubborn ever fought in the State, the Republicans leaving no stone unturned to hold the State machinery, which they have controlled for nearly a decade, while the Democrats struggled to take it from them.

Both sides are tonight claiming victory. The Republicans base their hopes on two things: First, the large majority which must be wiped out by the opposition, and second, the fact that they think the voters of the State, pleased at the prosperous condition of the State, will return a Republican Governor as an evidence of their endorsement of the national administration, and as an assurance to the present head of the administration that they have confidence in him. It was principally on the latter issue that the party made its fight.

The Democrats claim victory on the personal popularity of their candidate for Governor, James M. Seymour. He is very popular with the working classes, and his strength is acknowledged by his opponents. He has thrice been elected Mayor of Newark by large majorities.

Both State committees have compiled tables made up from reports from various counties of the State. The Republicans by their figures show that Franklin Murphy, their candidate for Governor, who is also chairman of the committee, will be elected by about 1000 majority.

The tables compiled by William B. Gourley, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, shows that Mayor Seymour will have about 8000 majority.

PASTORS TAKE A GOTHAM.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The feature of the local campaign today was the active part taken in it by the pastors of the churches. Thirty-one pastors, clergymen and two leaders of independent church societies advertised themselves to speak on the issues of the election, and all these clergymen took for their respective churches the administration of the present city officers.

One of the features of the fusion campaign has been the work of the "Women's Campaign Committee," which issued today a pamphlet distributed several hundred copies, in English and German, of a pamphlet purporting to be an exposé of the fusion policy. The Democrats also had a women's campaign committee actively at work during the canvass, but no report of its labors has yet appeared.

The Democrats intend to carry the work up to the last moment, and today have not changed their forecast, which is that Shepard will receive a majority in the greater city of about 5000.

Robert C. Morris of the Republican County Committee, today repeated his assertion of Saturday that Low's majority would be 70,000 in Greater New York.

Superintendent of Election McCulloch today addressed a letter to Police Commissioner Murphy informing him that it had been ascertained that a large gang of repeaters had been organized in Jersey City, to come over to New York to vote in the Ninth Assembly District in this city. His information was also that another gang had been formed in that district to invade Jersey City, and he asked Col. Murphy's assistance in preventing the repeaters from voting. Chief Murphy of Jersey City was also informed of the alleged attempt to be made to vote illegally.

KEYSTONE STATE CAMPAIGN.

INTERESTING OFF YEAR.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—The campaign just closed in Pennsylvania has attracted more than the ordinary off year interest in consequence of the fusion of Democrats and Republicans on candidates for the only two State offices to be filled—State Treasurer and Justice of the Supreme Court. The Independent Republicans, organized under the name of the Union Party, joined with the Democrats in the nomination of E. A. Corey, Jr. (Rep.) for State Treasurer, and Herman Yerkes (Dem.) for Supreme Court Justice, against the regular Republican nominees, Frank Harris for State Treasurer and William P. Potter for Supreme Judge.

The fusion leaders are making strong predictions that their candidates will carry the State, while, on the other hand, the regular Republican leaders express confidence in bringing their candidates safely through, though passively conceding that the majorities

CHARGED IN FURY.

Essayed to Wipe Out the British.

Benson's Command Stubbornly Resisted Attacks.

Col. Barter Brought Relief to the Assaulted—Burghers Heavy Losses.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

PRETORIA, Nov. 3.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Further details have been received regarding the attack by the Boers, under the command of Gen. Botha, last week on Col. Benson's command near Brakenburg, Eastern Transvaal. It appears that Gen. Botha, who had been joined by another big command, aggregating a thousand men, attacked Col. Benson's command, October 29, on the march and captured two guns, but was unable to keep them.

Col. Benson fell mortally wounded early in the fight, and Maj. Woods-Sampson took command, collected the convoy, and took up a position for defense about 100 yards from the entrenchments prepared by the Boers. The captured guns were so situated that neither side could touch them.

The Boers made desperate efforts to overwhelm the whole British force, charging repeatedly right up to the British lines, and being driven back each time with heavy loss. The defense was stubbornly and successfully maintained through the whole of the following day, and the next night, until Col. Barter, who had marched all night from Bushman's Kopie, brought relief on the morning of November 1. The Boers then retired. Their losses were between 100 and 400.

Col. Benson did not long survive. Not only did Gen. Botha direct the attack, as already cabled, but he personally shared in the fighting.

WAR NOT ENDED.

RIOTOUS SCENE AT PECKHAM.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

LONDON, Nov. 4.—(By Atlantic Cable.) The special dispatches from South Africa reveal practically nothing further about the disaster to Benson's column. It appears that the first attack was made in a blinding rainstorm. The heaviest casualties occurred in the morning. Maj. Woods-Sampson, who is a Johannesburg reformer, and an officer in one of the colonial levies, was gathering the convoy under the brow of a hill, a most difficult task. It was then that the Boers, in their polders remained in the possession of the British, but the telegrams are not clear on this point.

Edgar Wallace, correspondent of the Daily Mail, writing from Pretoria, October 12, again protests against official optimism, and declares that the war will not be ended for another year. He urges the immediate dispatch of large reinforcements of both men and horses.

"Even when all that is possible has been done in this direction," he says, "it will be necessary to wait grimly, and not to expect any quicker result."

A riotous scene occurred yesterday in Peckham, a suburb of London. A small gathering of the local branch of the Democratic League undertook to hold a meeting to protest against the war in South Africa. The manifestants started in procession for the place of meeting, but were badly buffeted and dispersed. A crowd, estimated at 20,000, gathered to oppose them. There were many ugly rumors, and the police were barely able to protect the struggling pro-Boers from the fury of the populace. After much fighting, during which a man was stabbed, the pro-Boers were removed under police protection. The victorious crowd then held a jingo meeting, and sang "Rule Britannia."

Dispatches from Warsaw say the newspapers there assert that a contract has been entered into for the supply of 20,000 horses for the British cavalry in South Africa.

Queen Alexandra, following the example of the late Queen Victoria, is sending Christmas gifts to the troops in South Africa. For this purpose she has ordered thousands of brass pipes, each silver-mounted and bearing the stamp of the crown and Her Majesty's monogram.

Methodists Occupied Pulpits in Kentucky Towns Yesterday and Some of the Bishops Delivered Three Sermons.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.—The Methodist pulpits of this city, Covington, Newport and other Kentucky towns were filled today by the visiting members of the Methodist Board of Bishops. Some of the bishops preached three times during the day, holding afternoon services, and most of them preached twice during the afternoon. Tomorrow morning the sessions of the board will be resumed, and final action be taken on the reports and other documents that have been submitted to the various committees. The conference of bishops will continue in session until Wednesday.

DRAMATIC EPISODE IN CHICAGO CATHEDRAL.

SERVICES STOPPED BECAUSE OF EX-PRIEST'S PRESENCE.

"Father" Crowley Kneels Before the Altar of Holy Name Cathedral, but Chancellor Bars Causes the Lights to Be Put Out and High Mass Suspended.

(BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—There was an interesting dramatic scene in Holy Name Cathedral today, when, in the presence of fully 11000 parishioners, Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated Roman Catholic priest, was publicly humiliated by order of the authorities of the church.

Father Crowley had entered the church unobserved, passing up the center aisle and had taken a seat almost under the pulpit. Solemn high mass was being celebrated at the time. When the presence of Father Crowley became known, Rev. Francis J. Barry, chancellor of the Archdiocese of Chicago, was hurriedly sent for. Upon entering the cathedral, he went straight to the seat where the excommunicated clergyman was kneeling, and ordered him to leave the church. Father Crowley refused to do so, saying: "Put me out if you dare."

The strain was intense and one woman in the congregation fainted. There was no resort to force, however. Chancellor Barry signaled to a man in the choir loft, and the sound of the organ ceased and the singing of the hymns was hushed. The priests in the altar stopped the solemn service at the end of the "Gloria," and walked to the benches and laid aside their golden vestments. The altar boys marched out of the sanctuary through a side door, and the priests, clad in their cassocks, followed. The next moment the hundreds of incandescent lights in the vaulted arches were extinguished and the candle lights on the altar were put out.

The strain was broken when Chancellor Barry appeared in the pulpit and said: "Owing to the presence in this sacred edifice of an excommunicated priest, the solemn high mass has been suspended. We will proceed with a low mass."

No sermon was delivered, however, and the congregation was calm again. The parishioners lingered around the cathedral and watched the deposited priest as he hurried away. None spoke to him.

ATTENTION THREATENED AGAINST EX-AUDITOR.

OLD FIGHT CROPPING OUT IN A PECULIAR WAY.

Tammanizing of Phoenix Government Under Investigation by Territorial Grand Jury—Wanton Murderer Gets Life Sentence—Warm Year.

PHOENIX (Ariz.) Nov. 3.—[From The Times Resident Correspondent.] A few weeks ago Atty.-Gen. Ainsworth was addressed by Thomas F. Wilson of Tucson, on the subject of a number of Territorial warrants on the incidental fund of the Governor's office, alleged to have been illegally issued by Auditor George W. Vickers. In the letter, demand was made that the Attorney-General proceed to sue Vickers and his bondsmen, or, under the provisions of a Territorial law, the complainant would proceed with an action himself against the Auditor for twice the amount alleged to have been wrongfully allowed. The Attorney-General has returned his answer. He has declined to bring suit, and has expressed himself forcibly to the effect that the Auditor is innocent of all legal and defensible. It is now expected that Wilson will file his suit. At the base of the contention is the old fight of Eugene S. Ives on Gov. Murphy. Auditor Vickers is not actively in the management of the Republican, and yesterday surrendered the Auditor's office to his successor, W. F. Nichols of Wilcox.

GRAND JURY AND "TAMMANY." The Territorial grand jury has been taking testimony concerning the Tammanizing of the city administration. A number of former employers of the city, and several of the city councilmen, have been called before the jury, presumably to testify concerning the alleged "shake-down" of $5 a month exacted for the benefit of the Young Men's Democratic Club, a more precise, toward the betterment of the Democratic city campaign fund at the next municipal election.

GOES UP FOR LIFE. John Rubenstein, the mail carrier, who killed two men near Scottsdale last May, has been given guilty of murder, and has been given a sentence of imprisonment for life. The jury arrived at the verdict cannot be deduced, as the murders were wanton and absolutely without provocation, possibly the only explanation being that given by the defendant when taken. "I always have been a boddler," he said. The main question before the court concerned the sanity of the prisoner. On this point arose an interesting and complicated question. The Rubenstein had received a retainer of $500 from the prisoner for a plot to kill the two men. The attorney, who tried to show the insanity of his client. If he had succeeded, the Rubenstein would have been released. He would, at the same time, have argued himself out of a fee, for then he held would have been worthless.

WATER WAR. The local water war continues, and more farmers have been arrested for breaking locks. The status of the local users and carriers of water will be settled in the Supreme Court of the United States, to which has been appealed the decision of the Salt River Valley Canal Company. The case is a remarkable one, in that it involves a decision, only a few months apart, in diametrically opposite decisions. The scope of the Arizona District courts.

ABNORMALLY WARM. The last weather Bureau report shows that the weather has been abnormally warm one in Arizona. November 1 the excess of temperature, reckoned on daily averages, has been 42 deg. October had an average of 4 deg. excess temperature daily. The only rain during the month in Phoenix was on the 2nd, when it fell to the amount of half an inch. In the north, as far down as Prescott, snow has fallen already, and snow is reported also from Bisbee and other upland points in the southeastern part of the Territory.

ARIZONA BRIEVITIES. Within a few weeks Superintendent S. M. McCowan of the Phoenix Indian Industrial School, will leave for Chillicothe, Mo., to take charge of the Indian school. M. Goodman, transferred from Chillicothe.

STATE SNAPSHOTS.

THE MAN WHO'S ALWAYS THE SAME.

Give us the man who's always the same. Forever, through thick and thin; The man who'll fight for the right, at times. When the wrong would fain creep in; The man who's true to his every friend; Not a falter on the idle tongue will he; Who leaves us no word of cheer unsaid, No song of hope unsung.

"Always the same," though the world may frown. And taunts and jibes be hurled; "Always the same," though he stand alone. Facing a cheerless world; The man who's ready to speak the word.

At the time it should be said; Who writes no epitaphs but "I am." "After" a friend is dead.

The man who's "always the same," at times. When the faintest hope seems gone; "Always the same," though the storm clouds fly. And cover the light of dawn. When the heart is in sympathy, When tears of sorrow flow. Who, when the call for duty comes, Is ever awake to go.

"Always the same," to rich or poor, Beggar or priest or king; "Always the same," at work: "The same."

Always, at everything. In a thousand ways men plan and scheme To gain success and fame, But the man who's true to his life, Is always and ever "the same."

HOTEL DETECTIVES.

They Are a Necessity to the Big Modern Hostleries—Watching for Crooks. Men Who Know the Business.

[New York Tribune:] "Who is that man?"

"He's a card sharp, and no good—has got to be." The question was asked by the proprietor of a large hotel. The man who answered looked like a drummer waiting in the hotel lobby for "trade," but he was the house detective, and had just finished a little conversation with the person in question. The card man went to the cigar stand, lit a cigar, and the half cigar which had gone out, smiled at the detective and walked out.

The man who makes his living by dishonest methods, the card sharp, gold brick man, swindler, speculator, green goods agent, sneak thief or confidence man, was formerly dreaded by the proprietors of metropolitan hotels. These men came to the hotels in all sorts of disguises, and in the most elaborate among the guests from the hayseed districts. But for the last few years they have abandoned the hotels as a place of refuge, and have taken to the lower part of the city and around crooks know that the glare of light in an uptown hotel is not beneficial to their health. With these members of the criminal world eliminated one would naturally believe that there was no longer any occupation for the hotel detective. But there are few hotels that do not carry at least one detective, and in some instances as many as four on their pay roll.

The man who "stopped" the card sharp and told him in diplomatic terms that "he guessed he'd better find some other place to hang out," explained that he had met the man at Saratoga at the races, where the detective worked, during the summer months. "He had a hard name among the book makers," said the detective, "and they know pretty well how to gauge a man, but we don't have to turn many of his kind away. They don't turn up here—not one in a blue moon. But we have our hands full, just the same. The sneak thief is like the poor and taxer always with us. The old-timers don't need fear, because they work in the country, but the gang that travels in all sorts of costumes, from college student to priest—those are the fellows we have to look out for. Another troublesome lot are the men who have a game to work, the fellows who have big mails come to their address, and lots of callers in answer to advertisements. Many of these fellows are crooks, who fleece their visitors, and it's our business to get onto their games."

At the Waldorf-Astoria there are four detectives in the employ of the house, exclusive of two women who are on duty when crowds of unusual size are expected. These people have no regular duties to perform, but they are expected to keep their eyes on all parts of the house, to note the arrivals and departures, to see who send cards to the guests, to make regular tours of the upper floor to see that no one is "working" the rooms of absent guests, and at the evening functions to mingle with the throng, always being ready to quell disturbances of "boys out" by objectionable persons who may have slipped into the place.

At the smaller hotels the time of the detective is utilized in various ways as purchasing agent, stands between the manager and the unknown visitor, and is often the general utility man of the house. At one of the hotels in the residence district of New York there is a detective who receives no pay for his services. He is there a few months every year, and does the work in the hotel, even a week for more such favors.

THE ANARCHIST.

He is no son of Freedom's giant race, This Anarch-Caliban, Whose hands betray while they embrace— This fool-flend masked as man, Whose black blood-maddened, ravens and hissing snakes, Would make the assassin's code a law for all mankind!

Now when the world, grown conscious of its strength, Is sweeping from its shores The treasury of kings, and breaks, at length, Their dread Star Chamber doors, Shall this, yeiled, reclin'd shadowing Freedom's throne, Uplift its head and reign, a despot, though uncrowned?

Nay, coward murder mingles where it aims And smites at its own cause, The slain of tyrants leave their martyred names, Each one a star that draws The sinner world clean-footed through the night, On by the broad highways slowly, up to Freedom's light.

Two Good Games of Baseball---Marksmen Make

CRIPPLES BREAK EVEN ON DOUBLE HEADER.

OAKLANDS ARE LUCKY TO WIN THE FIRST GAME.

Make Hits When They Are Very Much Needed—Players Fight Enthusiastically—Game—Dutchmen Beat Senators Two Successive Games.

In the first two ball games played here in one day, the Los Angeles Cripples broke even yesterday, the Cripples winning in the morning and the Dutchmen in the afternoon. Both games had their interesting features, and both were worth seeing. In the morning game, the Cripples won by a score of 7 to 1, and in the afternoon game, the Dutchmen won by a score of 7 to 1.

The morning game was a very much needed one for the Cripples, who had been losing for some time. The game was played in the morning and the Cripples won by a score of 7 to 1. The Dutchmen, who had been winning for some time, lost the game by a score of 1 to 7.

The afternoon game was also a very much needed one for the Dutchmen, who had been losing for some time. The game was played in the afternoon and the Dutchmen won by a score of 7 to 1. The Cripples, who had been winning for some time, lost the game by a score of 1 to 7.

The results of the games yesterday, here and in the North, settled for good Los Angeles' chances of winning the pennant this year. The Dutch beat the Cripples four out of five, and the Cripples took two from the Dutch, so that the Dutch have a lead of three games to one.

The shooting section of the Turnverein Germania held its regular monthly shoot yesterday at the range at the end of Downey avenue, and some good scores were made. Joe Singer distinguished himself by making high scores, and thus winning for the third time the championship medal, which now becomes his property. The scores were as follows:

NO RECORDS BROKEN.
Nothing startling has occurred in local bowling circles the past week except the low scores made by many of the bowlers. There seems to be no particular excuse for such scores except that the bowlers could not do any better. The Washingtons made the high roll of the week of 231, and Burke of the Angeles team the high average of 178-2-3. The Santa Monica team bowled the best single game of the week at Santa Monica last Monday night, their total being 825.

This evening the Owls and the Santa Monica will bowl tennis at the Oaks alleys, and the Angeles and Olympia ninepins at the Angeles alleys.

At the regular weekly match game between the Top Notchers and High Rollers at A. J. Corry's alleys in Whittier, last week, the former team, which was victorious a week ago, was badly defeated. The score:

TOP NOTCHERS.
John Shilbert 125
J. W. Galt 125

P. H. Charles now holds the best record in the county of 255.
Another alley, making three, will be put in this week.

Pool Tournament.
Jim Morley has decided not to hold a tourney this winter, and to supply the demand for this form of sport, Henry Berry of the Hoffman will have a tournament the first week in the new year. He thinks it would not take at this time, owing to the near approach of the Thanksgiving and holiday season, and to the continuance of the baseball games.

It is more than likely that an open tournament would bring George, Dunneavy and Burns here from the north, but the entries will probably be confined to local men. These are things to be considered later on, however.

Jim Morley says he will not enter in a tournament, but is willing at any time to play a match game here with George, the Coast champion.

Winning Railroaders.
In San Francisco yesterday the Railroad Traffic Baseball Club defeated the Bay City team by a score of 7 to 6 in a hot game. The winning team is composed of men in the railroad traffic departments at San Francisco, who are well known to Los Angeles railway people, and the news of their victory was conveyed by wire to one of the latter.

The Santa Monica High School and the Pasadena High School will be matched on the gridiron this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The game will be played in Pasadena, and is expected to be an interesting contest.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The World's Paris correspondent says Victor Sardou, whose extraordinary dealings with the spirit world have been referred to several times in the World's Paris correspondence, is again going through a series of marvelous manifestations after a barren period of four years.

One night a week ago, when the dramatist was waiting secure against intrusion, doors and windows closed, his light went out and was lighted again thrice in rapid succession as if meant for a signal. Immediately afterwards a bunch of magnificent white roses was placed before M. Sardou upon a desk by invisible hands. The roses were fresh with dew, and so fragrant as to perfume the whole room. A card attached to the blossoms bore the name of a young woman who died twenty-five years ago, from whom M. Sardou had had much spiritualistic correspondence before. Underneath her name was written "Enter into communication with him, the playwright took a pencil in his hand and asked aloud:

"Is it you, dear friend?"

"Yes," wrote the pencil. "I have several important messages to send to various persons dear to me. Will you deliver them?"

"I will," answered M. Sardou. "Cause my hand to write them."

Thereupon three warning messages were scribbled so fast that M. Sardou could not read them. They were of length they varied. The first contained twenty-three words, the second nine words and the third fifty-two, not including the names or addresses.

Sardou was aware of the very existence of any of these persons, but on calling at the addresses, he found them all, and each declared that the message was of the utmost importance.

Because it applied exactly to present danger or difficulties.

Since then M. Sardou has received communications every night from various spirits. One, which signed the name of "Robespierre," was severe in reproach of some inaccuracies and wrong estimate of the great revolutionist contained in a drama which M. Sardou wrote two years ago for Henry Irving.

The latest manifestations which surprised all others in the marvelous occurred two nights ago. The electric light extinguished itself completely in the library. M. Sardou found that every switch was open, and that the lights were burning in other rooms, which proved that the city current had not failed.

Returning to his desk, M. Sardou felt a pencil thrust into his hand and heard a large sheet of paper drawn from the shelf and placed in front of him. M. Sardou's hand then began to draw furiously.

At the end of five minutes the lights flashed again. M. Sardou examined the work, of which it had been impossible for his mind to form the least conception during the drawing.

It was signed "Bernard Palissy," a famous ceramic artist of the sixteenth century, and the writing along side read: "Mozart's house on Planet Jupiter." M. Sardou consented to intrust the drawing to the newspaper editor, and it is now exhibited in the Martin building. Never was architecture more ideally dreamy. Experts regard that fantastic Jupiter villa of Mozart's invaluable for architectural suggestions, being built according to delicious and unheard of esthetic principles.

Dr. Robbin examined M. Sardou today at the dramatist's request, and found him in the best of health, not nervous and his intellect as lucid as usual.

Varicocele.

Many who are but slightly afflicted with varicocele believe that the trouble is of little consequence. The opposite is true. Varicocele is a disease of a progressive nature. As it advances, the system is weakened, and the power diminishes and the general health is impaired. I cure varicocele in five days without the use of knife, ligature or caustic, without pain and without detention from business.

How Can You Doubt It?

It has come to our notice that some parties have been going about conveying the news that the rock of the Santa Ana Tin Mining Company contained no values. In order that you may know the true facts, we publish the result of tests made by the various assayers of Los Angeles. The returns are all on gold.

J. B. Hawley $8.25 R. A. Perez $5.68
Wade & Wade $9.75 Baverstock & Staples $5.76
Howard Squires $10.33 C. J. Callahan $5.48
Child & Hansen $5.79 W. B. McPherson $5.80

Remember, we have always made a claim for only $4.00. Latest in our own assay office at the mines. These runs were made by McPherson and Squires, all in one day, one after the other:

$7.24, $16.96, $7.44, $7.24, $7.44, $7.02.

Now, can we dispute such results? The above are all fire assays. Now to prove these tests to be correct, we are checking up to 90 per cent. of the fire assay by the cyanide method, and we get the values every time. When we consider the famous Treadwell Mines only average $1.61 in all values, and are clearing over $40,000 per month, it ought to be convincing proof of the values of our property when the average values of gold alone is over $5.00, and gold, tin and bismuth over $100.00 per ton. We are giving you straight facts, and as soon as our mill is started we will prove every assertion, and the mill will start whether you buy stock or not. We still have a limited amount of stock for 25 Cents Per Share.

It is a sure thing, 60 days from now you will not buy this stock for one dollar per share.

Why Old Chronic Disorders are Not Cured Under the Treatment Usually Employed.

In the more chronic cases of urethral trouble we find gonorrhea, syphilis and areas of inflamed surface, due to neglected and badly treated conditions, which have become localized and are the sources of continual annoyance and irritation.

The first essential in the treatment of these cases is to locate the trouble and to determine its nature and to ascertain if there is superficial ulceration and thickening of the walls of the canal, which is a mass of diseased tissue, producing disordered function of the organ. By the direct application of our local treatment we remove and cure these conditions in a few treatments.

We especially insist in cases that do not yield to other methods of treatment. Fees arranged to suit convenience of patients.
